Good morning Mr. Farrell,
I wasn't sure exactly who to contact within the board of education, I found your email under code of ethics complaints. Oyster River has hired a diversity coordinator, Rachael Blansett, who runs a blog called "2 Heauxes". An openly racist blog which thankfully parents in the district saw before she made it password protected. The shirt she is wearing for the press release says "Pro black, Pro Queer, Pro Hoe". I've attached images of her site, clearly fueling racism which isn't needed in our schools. This individual should not be guiding children, of which she clearly states is not a fan of the color they are.

I've attached a few images.
Thank you for your time.
